

3-Day Break

- Day 1 – Travel from a local joining point, arriving at our hotel this evening for a two-night stay. D
- Day 2 – Edinburgh and Military Tattoo (included). See Day 3 of the 5-day break for description. B
- Day 3 – Gretna Green (included). On our return journey we briefly visit Gretna Green before continuing our journey home. B

5-Day Break

- Day 1 – Travel from a local joining point, arriving at our hotel this evening for a four-night stay. D
- Day 2 – Stirling and the Trossachs (included). Scenic drive around the beautiful Trossachs followed by free time in Stirling. B,D
- Day 3 – Edinburgh and Military Tattoo (included). Free time in the morning, then to Edinburgh. In the evening, we take our seats for the Edinburgh Military Tattoo. B
- Day 4 – Loch Lomond (optional). We visit the ‘bonnie banks’ of Loch Lomond, Scotland’s largest loch, long immortalised in verse and song. A picture-postcard view awaits around every corner as we visit some of the pretty villages that dot the shores.. B,D
- Day 5 – Gretna Green (included). On our return journey, we briefly visit Gretna Green before continuing home. B

B=Breakfast D=Dinner

Tour includes

3 Day Break

- FREE local joining points
- Travel by executive coach
- 2 nights’ accommodation with breakfast & 1 evening meal
- 2 excursions or visits

5 Day Break

- Travel by luxury coach
- FREE local joining points
- Porterage at your hotel
- Smaller, more personal group
- 4 nights’ accommodation with breakfast & 3 evening meals
- 3 excursions or visits

Hotel

You’ll stay for two or four nights in a 3-star hotel, such as the Park Hotel or the Howard Park in Kilmarnock. All hotels have a restaurant and bar. Bedrooms have a T.V., tea/coffee-making facilities and hairdryer.

When demand is high, other hotels of a similar standard may be used.